

For Lame Muscles!

No matter what the cause of the lameness, nor where it is located,

Rexall
Rubbing Oil

will help to allay the inflammation, reduce the swelling and relieve the pain—or we will give you back the money you paid for it.

Prices 25c, 50c and $1.00

Sold only by

Grant Holden

Drugs The Rexall Store Jewelry

Plumbing and Tinsmithing!

I have purchased the Ed. Toft Plumbing and Tinsmithing business, and moved the outfit into the Bowles building, corner Main and North Streets. A competent and experienced plumber and tinner is employed to do the work. Prices reasonable. Let us do your next job.

~~~~~
Eavetroughing a Specialty.
~~~~~

John H. Mathews

Where Quality Counts Where Prices Are Lowest

A Good Place to Trade!

We buy as low as we can; that's business sense
We sell as low as we can; that's progressive sense
You buy as low as you can; that's common sense
You buy of us; that's dollars and cents—for both of us

The Store That Saves You Money.

J. K. RASSEY.

Do you know why the letter "A" is like our Fresh and Wholesome Groceries?

Because It Starts the Appetite

Try them and see. Prompt Delivery

North End Grocery

PHONE 58 JOHN BRIGHT, Proprietor.

Yale Chapter No. 64, O. E. S.
Regular meetings in Masonic Hall, Wednesday evenings during 1917 as follows:—Jan. 10; Feb. 7; Mar. 14; April 11; May 9; June 6; July 4; August 1; Sept. 5; Oct. 3; Nov. 28. Special meetings announced in the local columns. Visiting members cordially invited.
Mrs. Emily Yull, W. M.
George A. Spencer, Sec. N. J. Drouyor, W. P.
Mrs. Mary Brown, Treasurer

Brookway Lodge, 316, F. & A. M.
Regular communication on or before the full of the moon each month at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evenings during 1917 as follows:—Jan. 4; Feb. 11; March 5; April 3; May 2; June 24-25; Aug. 2-3; Sept. 27 (Oct. 25); Nov. 23; Dec. 27.
U. E. Beard, Treas. Henry Pearce, Sec.

A. W. McNINCH
Manufacturers' Representative of the Famous Ivers & Pond and Schumann
Pianos
SANDUSKY, MICHIGAN

Bring On Your Junk
I will pay $12.00 a ton for old iron; 10 a pound for rags; 5c a pound for rubber boots and rubber shoes.
22-13 John Sexton, Yale
Expositor liners pay, try one.

Local and Otherwise.

Gus Smith was at Port Huron on Friday last.

Gleaner ball Wednesday evening, Oct. 10. Come.

Roswell Green was over from North Branch on Tuesday.

Edward Andrae and family were at Cedarwood Sunday.

Many Yale people are attending the Inlay City fair this week.

Mrs. Eva Lothian is now employed in the Yale State Bank.

Ed. Oatman and wife, of Detroit, were in Yale over Sunday.

Geo. B. Green moved his household goods to Capac Friday last.

Clifford Hutton returned to the U. of M. at Ann Arbor Monday morning.

John Hutton has been entertaining his father from Hickory, N. C., the past week.

Mrs. J. B. Stevens has been at Harper hospital, Detroit the past week receiving treatment.

Mrs. J. J. Jackson, of Detroit visited relatives and friends in this locality the past week.

Anna Fead and LeVange Kimball, of Port Huron, were week end guests of Aileen Learmont.

Mrs. Chas. Barr and son visited relatives and friends at Vanderbilt and Cheboygan the past week.

A slight rain shower fell in this locality the first of the week helping out fall plowing for wheat some.

J. F. Holden, wife and daughter of Highland Park, were Sunday guests of Yale relatives and friends.

Bert Jardine was laid up for a few days the past week but is now again at his post in the barber shop.

C. R. Adams and wife accompanied by Mrs. Patterson of Capac visited Yale relatives and friends Friday last.

Mrs. Eden Bricker, of Grand Rapids, has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gough, the past week.

James Rose, breeder of registered Short Horn cattle, shipped a 10 months-old bull to parties at St. Ignace last week.

Ed. Sheehy will ship live stock from Yale to Eastern markets tomorrow, Friday. If you have anything to sell, see him.

G. M. Davis, wife and son who accompanied the remains of Samuel Simmons from Grand Rapids to Yale, have returned to their home.

Editor Gorton of the Lexington news, accompanied by his sister of Kansas City, Mo., were in Yale Friday on their way to Lexington from visiting friends at Bancroft.

E. H. Drake last week traded his property on the corner of Main and Wells streets to Judge E. F. Law for the latter's house and lot on North street near the Brick chapel.

Cochrane's big sale is on and large crowds are taking advantage of the many price reductions which he is making on staple goods. The sale lasts until Saturday, Oct. 13th.

J. J. Gilroy writes the Expositor from Sault Ste Marie: "Enclosed find $5.00 for subscription to your valuable paper which we could not get along without." This amount pays Mr. Gilroy to 1921.

A large number of owners of DeLaval cream separators took advantage of the offer of F. J. Wilt and brought in their separators to his implement warehouse and had them adjusted and put in good working order Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The social dancing party, given at the New Auditorium Thursday night was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair. Baldwin's six piece orchestra furnished excellent music. Dancing continued until after the mid-night hour and all went home much pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Chas. Montney was a caller at the Expositor office last Tuesday morning, and passed the cigars around to the boys, remarking that it was the 57th anniversary of his wedding day. He had his estimable wife are enjoying the best of health and it is the wish of their host of friends in Yale that they may enjoy many more of these anniversaries.

John E. Paxton, better known as "Happy" has enlisted in the U. S. army and is stationed at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind. "Happy" enlisted at Saginaw and went to the place of encampment last week. We wish him the best of everything, and may he come back to his parents and friends after the "Kaiser" is licked to a frazzle with never a scar or blemish.

Helen Harrington spent the later part of last week with her friends.

Come to Yale next Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 9 and 10. Two days of races.

Florence Simmons and Mrs. John Irving visited relatives in Marlette over Sunday.

Grant Holden was at Detroit the latter part of last week purchasing his line of holiday goods.

Mrs. Eva J. Black spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Detroit purchasing the latest things in millinery.

F. O. Putney was at Pt. Huron Monday attending a meeting of the Board of County Road Commissioners.

James Brown, who is employed as linotype operator on the Brown City Banner, was home Friday on account of sickness.

Peter Fergus and family, Wm. Fleming and family motored to Argyle the past week and visited Joe Fleming and family.

A bent which John Cole was raising into place slipped from his hands and struck him across the nose breaking the bridge. Dr. Yuill dressed the wound.

The first foot ball game on the Yale gridiron was played last Friday afternoon between Yale and Brown City H. S. teams and resulted in a score of 19 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

The forty-fifth annual fair of the Armada Agricultural Society will be held next-week, Oct. 10, 11 and 12. The Expositor acknowledges receipt of complimentary tickets from secretary Orvy Hulett.

Margaret Worden is now teaching in the public schools at Tawas City. For many years she taught in the schools near Marine City. She is a competent teacher and will be liked by all who become acquainted with her.

The Expositor was mistaken last week in stating that Charles Mackman made a trip to Clio with his family and Joe Williams and wife in Mr. Mackman's new Ford. It should have read Mrs. Mackman's Ford touring car.

C. E. Richards' demonstration of South Bend Malleable ranges, which closed Tuesday, was a success in every way. A number of sales have been made through the efforts of Mr. Richards and the man who was here from the factory.

A grand Gleaner ball will be given at the Gleaner Hall, Old Brockway, Wednesday evening, Oct. 10, to which the public generally are cordially invited. Music by McKanlass 3 piece orchestra. Bill including refreshments, $1.00. A good time is promised all who attend.

Mrs. Mina Campbell writes us from Chicago enclosing $1.00 for Mrs. S. P. Murphy's subscription to the Expositor and says: "It is needless to say that mother very much enjoys the news from home and I would not want her to be deprived of your valuable publication."

Dr. Wm. Yuill went to Ann Arbor Wednesday on a professional call.

J. K. Rassey has been on a business trip to his farm near Cadillac this week.

A Grand Ball will be given at the New Auditorium Thursday evening, Oct. 18. Music by Finzel's orchestra of Detroit. Further particulars next week.

The Young Peoples' class of the Mechanic street Church of Christ will give a box social one week from Friday evening at the home of Donald Black. All are welcome.

Dr. and Mrs. Lacy and daughter Dorothy have returned from their motor trip of 2,500 miles east of Buffalo, through the Adirondack and Catskill mountains, to Boston and New York.

Mr. and Mrs. George Higley entertained the following friends for dinner last Sunday:—Mrs. VanHouten, Seymour VanHouten, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmyre, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Yates and Teddy Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Grove Bush, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Sam V. Merrill, Marie and Ethel Merrill, of Flint.

Dr. W. N. Armstrong, of Concord, writes us as follows:—"Find $5.00 enclosed to continue the Yale Expositor as my wife says it is always a welcome visitor and like a letter from home. It is just twenty years since I left Yale, and of course you know I have a great many happy recollections to look back over the many years when I was in the midst of that bunch of hustlers."

Last Friday evening one hundred friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Will Bell to surprise them before they left for the East. Everyone brought loaded baskets, and sandwiches, pickles, potato salad, ice cream and cake were served. The friends presented Mr. and Mrs. Bell with a fine leather traveling bag as an evidence of their good will, and best wishes for a happy home in the East.

..Why Pay More..

for no better quality

..CLOTHES..

or why accept inferior quality clothes at the same price when you can get

Top Notch Quality

Top Notch Style

Top Notch Value

at J. I. Rosenthal's

Years of unqualified success in supplying the clothing wants of the men of this city better than any other store, is an assurance that you, too will be satisfied with whatever you buy here.

Our willingness to give you your money back if anything goes wrong is your guarantee that everything will be right.

Our Fall and Winter Lines provide an unrivaled scope of choice at these prices:--

Suits, $10 to $25

Overcoats, $10 to $30

This store saves you money on Boys' Suits and Shoes. The best in the city. See our line of all wool Sweaters.

ROSENTHAL'S

"The Kuppenheimer House in Yale."

The Range Eternal..

Lined with Eternametal, the most durable metal in any range. The Range Eternal Out-looks, Out-cooks and Out-lasts every other range on the market. It costs no more than any other range, but is twice as satisfactory. Call at our store and inspect it, even if you are not ready to buy.

John Hutton